Strategic Management for 21st Century Policing

40-Hour Training Course - 4.0 CEUs (KLEC Approved)

Tuition: $795⁰⁰ if paid by cash/check / $820⁰⁰ if paid by credit card

Strategic Management for 21st Century Policing is one of four courses required to complete the optional Organizational Management Certificate Program. All four courses comprising the OMCP are currently set to be held in Urbana, IL during SPI's 2020 training schedule.

Course Description

This course of study will introduce participants to the key elements of strategically managing a law enforcement agency. A variety of techniques will be covered that will prepare participants to engage in strategic planning and thinking. The instructor will facilitate problem-solving management and critical issues, directing agency effectiveness, and encouraging and supporting highly productive staff. Emergency plans and contingency planning in respect to terrorism will also be addressed.

The learning environment and course exercises will be interactive and support maximum class participation in exercises. Questions and discussion will be encouraged throughout. Each participant will have the opportunity to develop a strategic plan for their agency or build upon an existing plan based on the content of the course training.

Participants will be presented with material and instruction designed to facilitate and encourage a positive, developmental, forward-thinking role for leading their agencies through stressful and difficult times. They will be prepared to anticipate and resolve internal organizational problems and those facing their communities. Participants will be better prepared to manage change and to respond to new challenges.
